

Prairie View Trail Riders Association – 2023 Rules of Participation

- PVTRA is not responsible for accidents, thefts or damage to personal property, vehicles, equipment, etc.
- Everyone MUST complete a HLSR Indemnity Form & sign the PVTRA “Rules of Participation.”
- Members must have current Health Certificate and a Negative Coggins for equine on ride.
- All members are required to wear western attire (i.e. cowboy boots and hats, shirt with collars)
- It is the responsibility of every member to call attention to illegal/unsafe occurrences.
- Each member is responsible for cleaning their individual campsites.
- Members must obey the direction of the scouts and adhere to ride formation.
- All parade participants must leave from Memorial Park on Saturday February 25, 2023.
- All wagons exiting the parade route & entering Fonde must have prior approval by MDJ (trail boss)
- Wagons must remain covered throughout the parade.
- Shirt colors must be adhered to on specified days (Purple, Gold and White)
- ABSOLUTELY no loading or unloading horses on memorial drive.
- No advertisement on clothing (i.e.: wrangler, cinch, Budweiser etc.)
- Parents/Guardians are responsible for the actions of their minor children.
- Fires must be contained in barrels at each campsite and not on the ground.
- Only authorized vehicles will be allowed to follow ride. Others must continue to next stop.
- No illegal drugs; No weapons or firearms.
- No fighting: All members are expected to be respectful of others.
- The use of any profanity towards any official will cause you to be suspended from the trail.
- Alcoholic beverages must be in nondescript containers, (i.e., canteens, mugs, koozies).
- No drinking while the trail is in motion.
- No 4-wheelers on organized rides.
- No racing or trick riding while the ride is in motion.
- No double riding on horseback on the ride. No horseback riding in camp once organized ride has arrived.
- No stallions, bulls, or dogs on organized rides. Dogs must be on a leash in camp.

I, _____ have read and do understand that violation of any of the above rules may result in expulsion from the trail. I will abide by the rules of participation as set forth by the Prairie View Trail Riders Association this _____ day of February 2023.